

Sample Letter to Social Justice Friend

October 16, 2018

Dear _____,

It's that time of year when people start thinking about their charitable giving. I know you have always had a heart for suffering and underprivileged people, and you have tried to do your part to advocate and serve those in need.

I wanted to invite you to consider supporting an organization, Waterville Presbyterian, which feeds the hungry and does other work as well to address need in our community. My particular love is our food pantry. We are one of three churches which collects and distributes food to needy families in the area. It's a huge task, but as I volunteer there month after month, I've learned a lot about need and hunger, and one of the things I know is that when people are hungry, nothing else in their life is good.

If you would be interested in supporting a local organization which feeds hungry people, and does a lot of other things too, we would welcome your support. It takes a community to address big issues, and your contribution would make a difference.

I'm including a flier about some of our programs, and a pledge card. You can also go to our website, www.watervillefpc.org and click on our sustainer link. Thank you for considering us as you plan your giving.

Yours....
